

Creekside Park Connects to Lake Terramere as winds you through the quiet neighborhood of Terramere. It's not quite a mile (.67 of a mile) but you'll feel a world away! The Buffalo Creek runs under Lake Cook Road and meanders its way to Creekside Park before continue it journey south. The path system follows the creek most of the way before you exit the park at the Village pump house. Crossing at Harvard and Thurston and continuing on Thurston you'll meet Kennicott Ave. Just two houses south on Kennicott the Lake Terramere park comes into view. Finish by looping around the green space and you're just under a mile from the tennis courts at Creekside to the playground at Lake Terramere.
