

AHPD Golf Instructors

Holly Barth-708-289-7804

Holly attended Tulsa University on a golf scholarship. In 1976 she won the Los Angeles Women's City Championship and was a First Team Collegiate All-American at the University of Tulsa in 1978. Holly turned professional in 1979 at age 22, playing professionally in the United States for 5 years and then competing on the Japanese LPGA for 5 years, winning two titles and representing Japan against the US in 1989. Holly comes to the Arlington Heights Park District with a wealth of knowledge and the dedication to teach the game of golf especially to junior golfers.

Rich Grutzmacher-847-610-0899

Rich started playing golf over 50 years ago. Rich loves the game of golf and learning more and more every day. Rich has been teaching at the Arlington Heights Park District since last season. Rich enjoys seeing his students improve from lesson to lesson. His wealth of experience and knowledge of the golf swing allows him to keep a single digit handicap.

Peter Bryl-847-651-2323

Peter Bryl has been a golf instructor for almost 20 years. The emphasis for Peter is to make sure his students have fun no matter what age. Another priority is to work with the students to improve their golf game. Peter is very patient and positive when giving lessons. If you need a laugh, just ask for a joke from Peter, he always has plenty to tell.

Paul Onischuk, PGTA-312-720-7902

Paul is a 40+ year student of the game and accomplished high school and collegiate golfer. He is passionate about golf, infectious in his enthusiasm for the game, and motivated in helping others improve. Paul brings a teaching mantra of "set it and forget it," helping understand how "control-ables" surrounding posture, grip, and alignment help simplify and automate the multitude of things that need to go right in golf to be successful. Paul is a golf coach at Saint Viator High School, as well as an ordained deacon at Our Lady of the Wayside Church.

Bryan Cox, PGA-847-577-3032

Bryan is our General Manager of Golf Operations and has been with the Arlington Heights Park District for 3 years now. Bryan has been teaching the game of golf for over 15 years. Bryan enjoys teaching the game of golf because no two swings are the same and each golfer is unique. While Bryan would like to teach more, he has other obligations and defers to the other great Arlington Heights Park District Golf Instructors